The Pepin Portrait Project

Juxtaposing Latino immigrant farm workers with the grandchildren and great-grandchildren of western European immigrants, Xavier Tavera's art challenges viewers to look closely at their own perceptions and biases - and to see the shared humanity of all people.

Grupo Soap del Corazon "Soap of the Heart" artists' group presents Xavier Tavera's large scale photographic portraits of people living and working in western Wisconsin's rural Pepin county.

About Grupo Soap del Corazon

Founded in 2000 by Mexico City native Xavier Tavera and Minnesota/Wisconsin resident Dougie Padilla, Grupo Soap del Corazon celebrates Latino artists and culture in Minnesota and the upper Midwest of the U.S.A. To date, Grupo Soap del Corazon has featured the work of 90 local, regional, and international artists, and has shown at museums, non-profit and for-profit galleries, in the streets, and in alternative spaces in the United States and in Chile.
